

Some Info about the 2011 Festival

The Fourth Stockton Heath Festival saw.....

34 events over 4 days in 9 different venues

Over 10,000 visitors

Wide coverage of the Festival in the local press and on local radio

Nearly 3,000 people visited a wide variety of shows and an Art Exhibition

49 Scarecrows invaded the village shops

Over 500 children danced to Jo Jingles, the Glee Experience & enjoyed the Puppet Shows

10,000 programmes were delivered, locally, by hand!

7 main sponsors from local companies and Parish Councils

26 Supporters or Friends of the Festival from local businesses

60 Arts/Crafts/Farmers stalls at the Markets over the weekend

500 people turned out to watch the Open-Air Cinema – despite the rain!

over 500 people took a boat trip on the Bridgewater Canal, many visiting the Red Lane Allotments

18 models strutted down the catwalk for the Fashion Show and Charity catwalk

Over £5,000 was raised for charities and good causes

And.....15 volunteer organizers and over 50 volunteer Festival Crew brought it all together!!!!

You can help us make the 2012 Festival – our 5th! – as successful as this, again, by supporting us as a Sponsor, Supporter or Friend of the Festival and, in return, we can offer your business some fantastic advertising opportunities.

You can also help us by becoming a member of our Festival Crew.
